Scala Concurrency

Practical Exercises

Chapter 3: About Actors

1. Modify your solution to the previous lab exercise, so that the Arithmetic actor sends a response message to the requester containing the result of applying the operation.

2. Refactor your solution so that instead of handling all the requests inside a single actor, the main actor creates child actors to carry out the calculation, one for each operation.